SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE AN AWESOME SYMPOSIUM SPONSOR

AWESOME brings together senior women leaders in supply chain to provide opportunities for collaboration, recognition, learning and inspiration to advance and transform the future of supply chain leadership. Founded in 2013, we now have an organization of senior executives that numbers more than 1,400 women.

We are planning our Eighth Annual Symposium on June 10-12, 2020, in Chicago, IL, where we will learn from the insights and experience of outstanding leaders as we celebrate the success and power of the AWESOME organization.

A limited number of sponsorships will be offered to companies who share AWESOME's commitment to developing diverse talent and advancing women's leadership.

Guiding Principle for Sponsorships:

Relationships with sponsor companies will be based on our shared values and common goals. We have created sponsorship opportunities that provide meaningful participation and demonstrate genuine commitment.

SPONSORS WILL ENJOY THESE BENEFITS AND PRIVILEGES

(in accordance with sponsorship level)

- 1. Participation in the Symposium (number of participants varies according to sponsorship level). Sponsors' representatives are invited to participate fully in Symposium activities, while refraining from any marketing, selling and recruiting activities.
- 2. Additional engagement opportunities with the AWESOME network during and after the Symposium (varies according to sponsorship level).
- 3. Recognition in Symposium materials before, during and after the event. This includes the AWESOME website, the Symposium website, Symposium materials, recognition at the event and in follow-up materials. Recognition will highlight each company's focus on diversity and women's leadership and their support of AWESOME objectives.
- 4. Opportunity to contribute logo items to welcome bag for participants (varies according to sponsorship level).
- 5. Partner and Champion level sponsors will receive the exclusive benefit of a facilitated best practice sharing session with senior executives from other Partners and Champions on the first day of the Symposium.
